

The Easter Story

Jesus arrived in Jerusalem on Palm Sunday.
Everyone waved palm leaves to welcome Jesus in.

The Priests were jealous of how much the people loved Jesus.

One of Jesus' disciples called Judas betrayed Jesus for money from the priests. This meant that he was going to tell the guards where Jesus was.

Jesus sat down to a Passover meal with His friends.

Jesus broke the bread and shared the wine at the Last Supper. He told them He had been betrayed. One of his disciples had broken Jesus' trust.

Jesus said that Peter would deny Him before the cock crows. This meant that he would not tell anyone where Jesus was.

Then Jesus went to pray in the garden of Gethsemane.

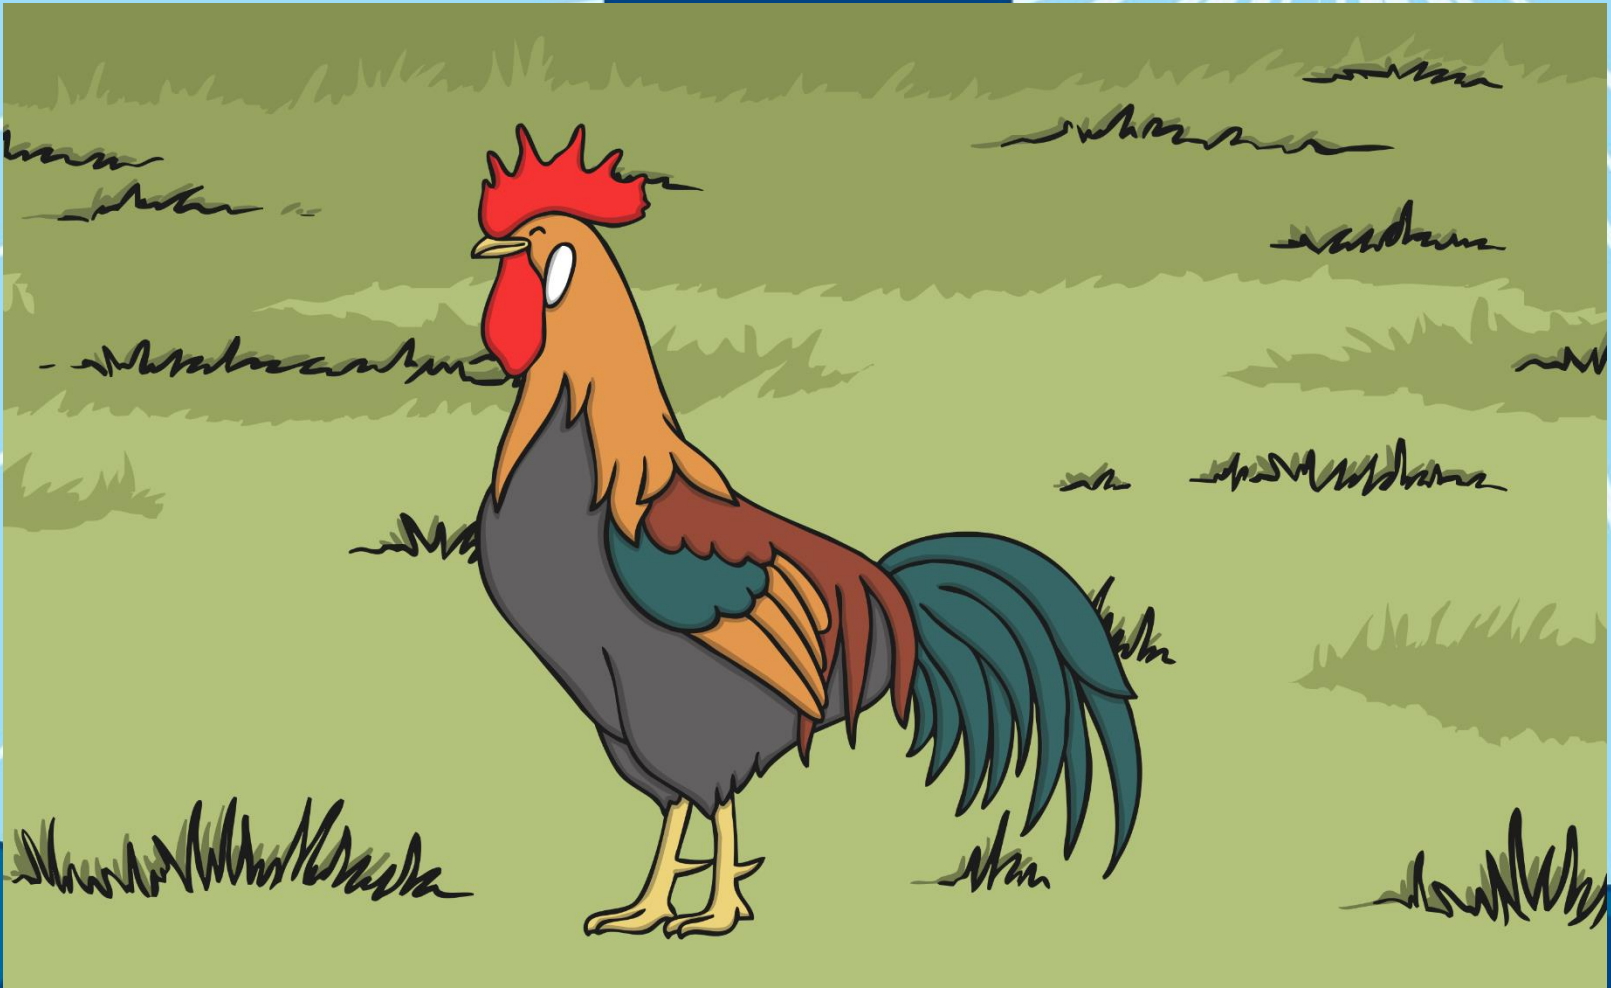

Judas told the high priests where Jesus was and they sent the temple guards.

Peter said he didn't know Jesus.

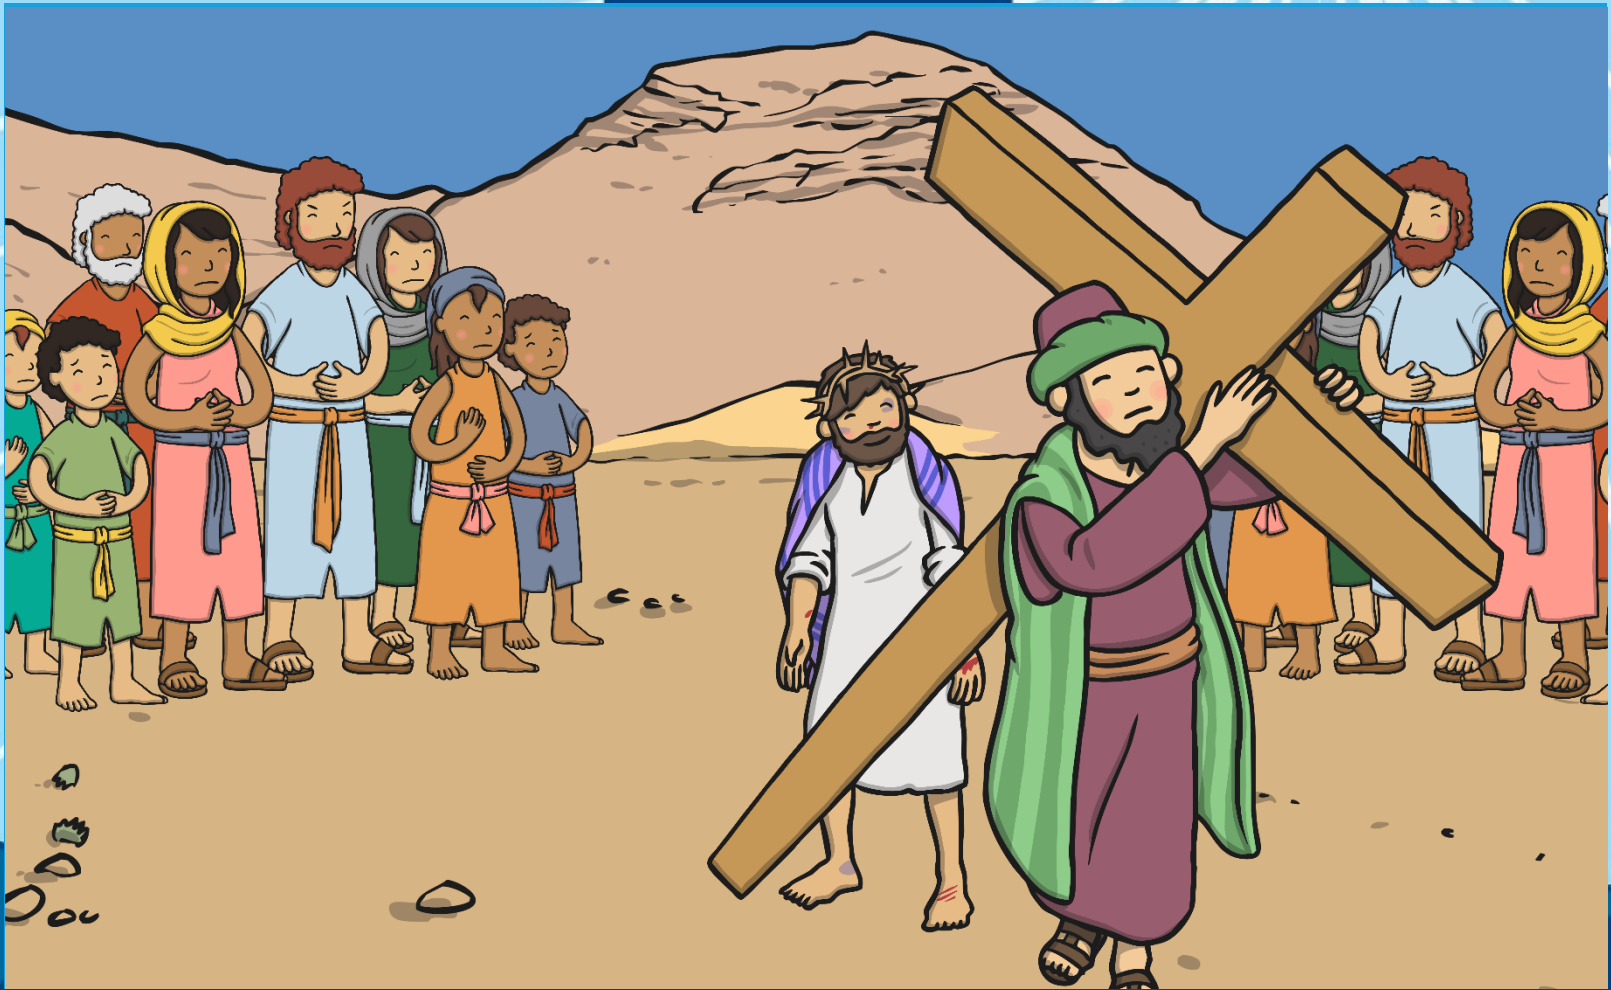

Then the cock crowed.

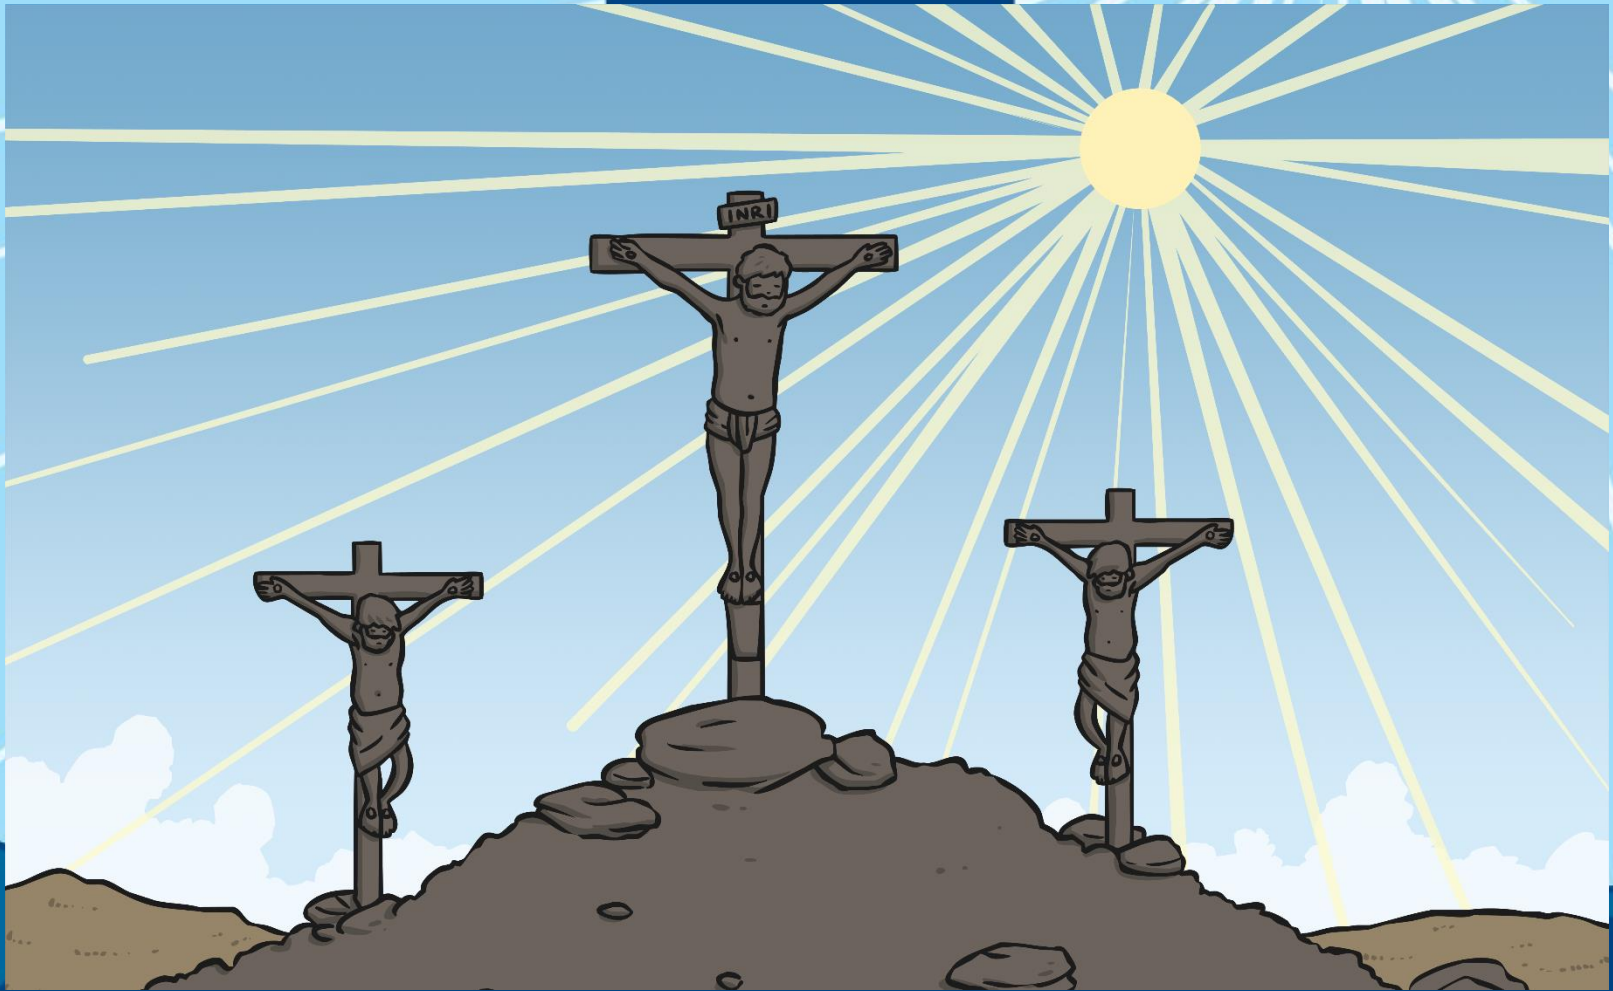

At that time, people who did wrong things were shown in front of other people and they got to decide what would happen to them. Pontius Pilate was a ruler at that time and he set Barabbas who was a bad man free instead of Jesus. The crowd wanted Jesus punished and he had done nothing wrong!

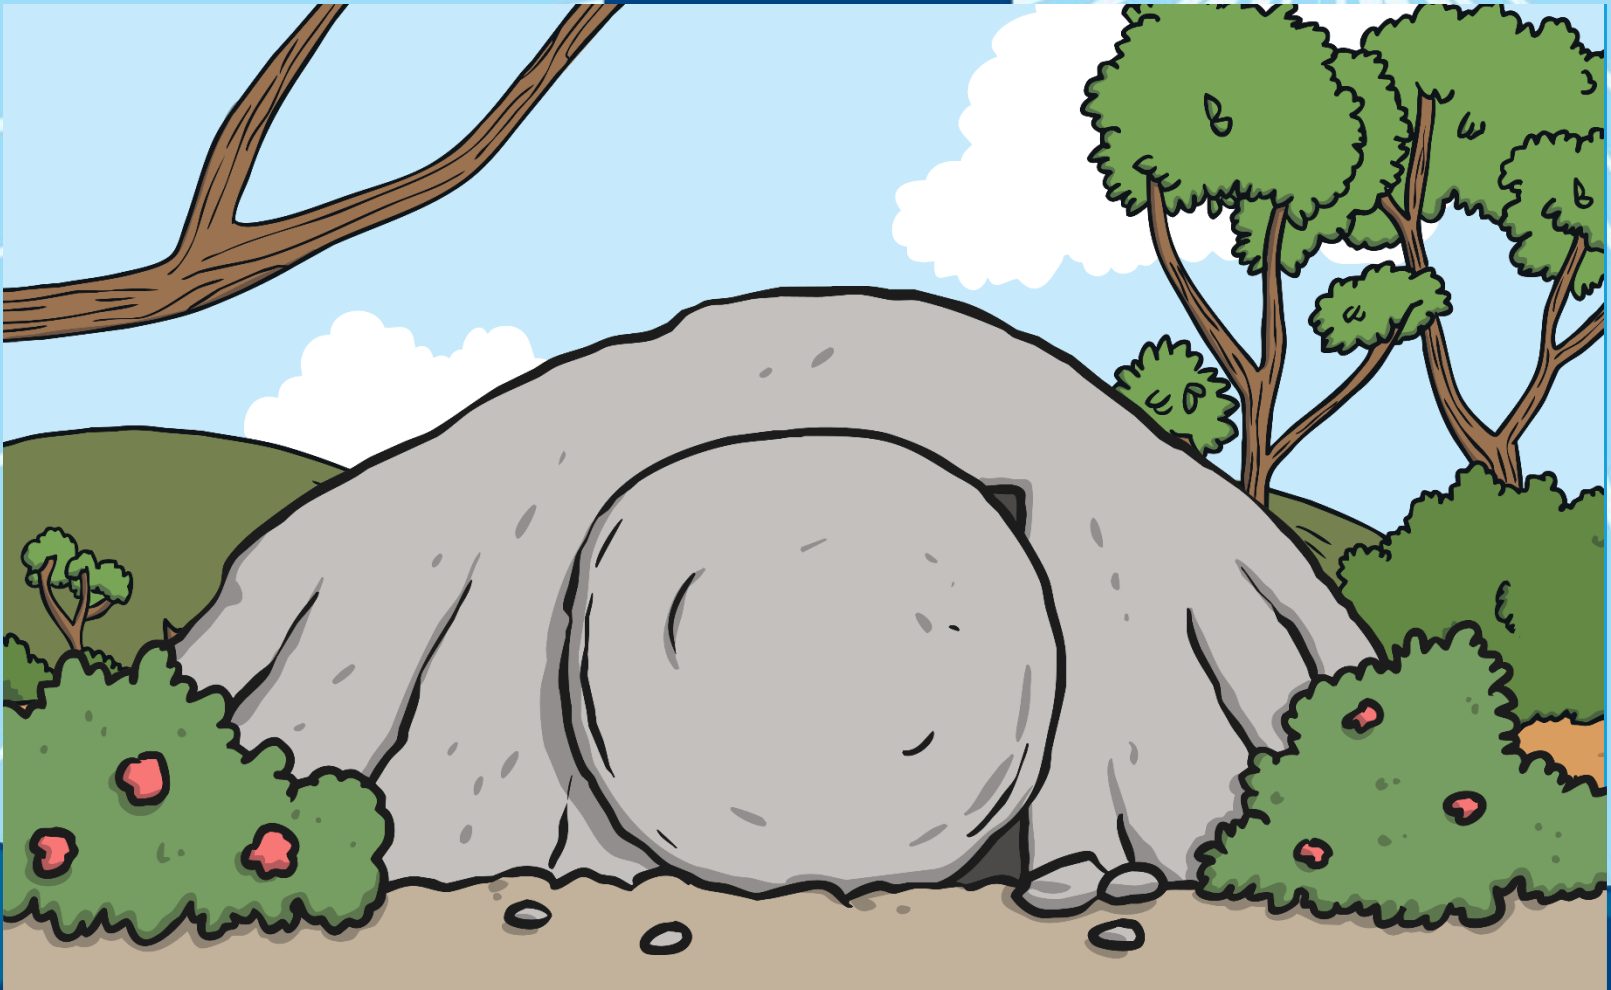

Simon carried Jesus' cross to the hill.

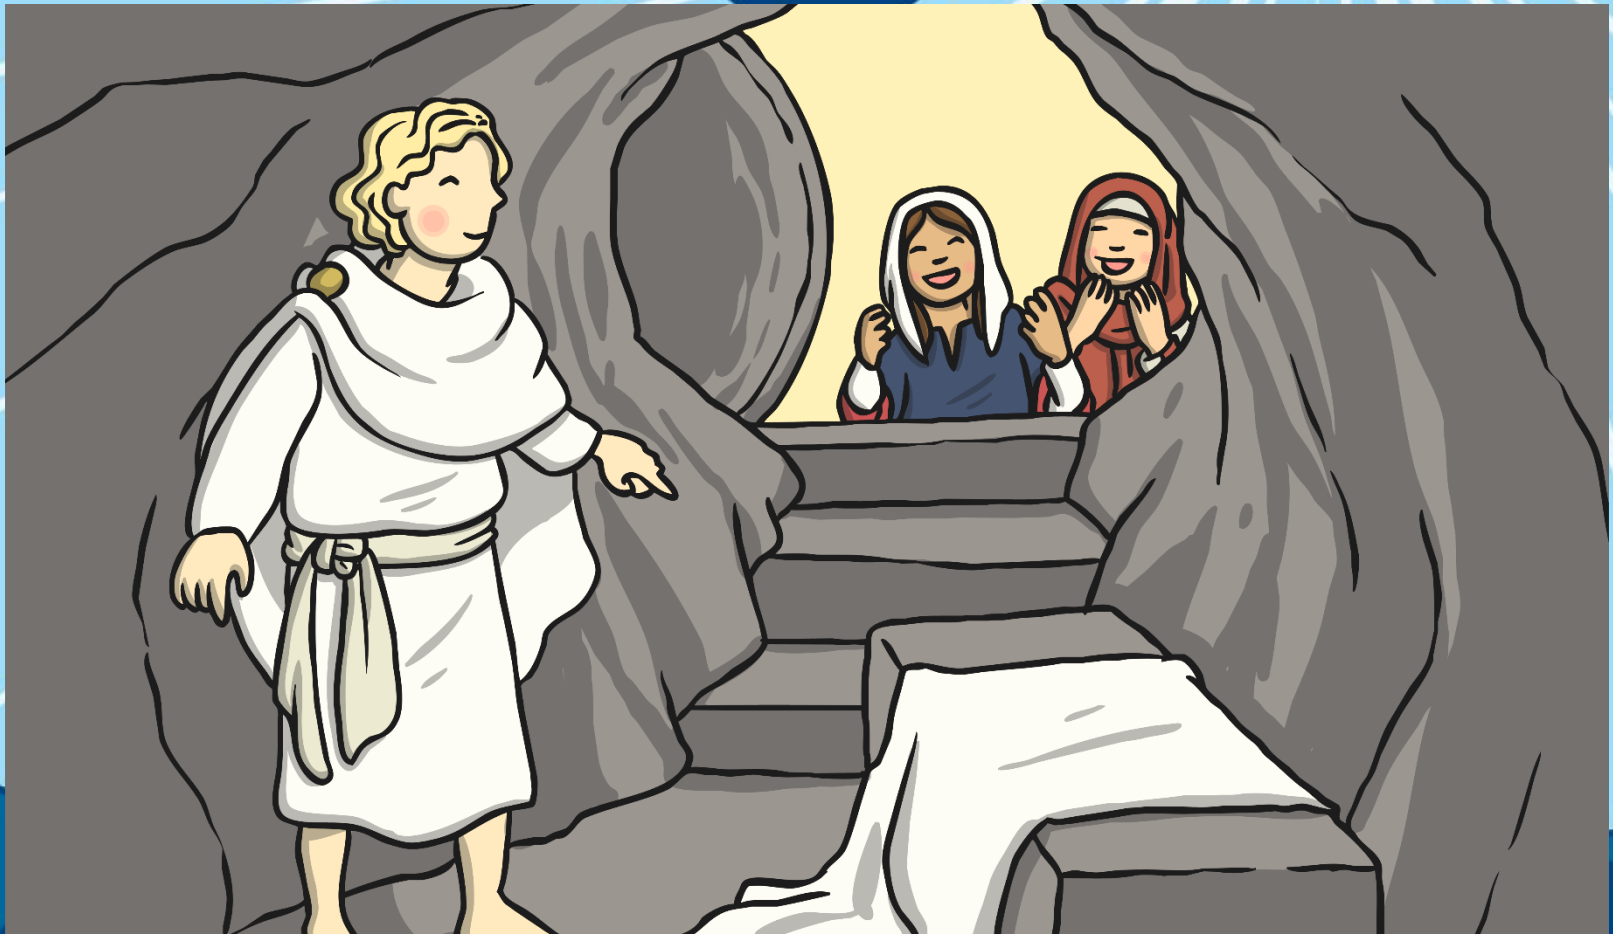

Jesus was crucified which meant he died on the cross.

Jesus was put into a tomb, sealed with a large stone. He was wrapped in sheets and spices and oil were put on his body.

On the third day, the stone was rolled away. An angel told Mary Magdalene that Jesus had risen from the dead.

Jesus appeared to Mary Magdalene and the disciples before going to heaven.
