

Great Fire of London

The Lord Mayor of London is woken up and told about the fire. He goes back to sleep! Move back to the beginning.

Choose a Task Card

Your maid tells you that 300 buildings have already been destroyed. Move back two spaces.

Choose a Task Card

Start

The fire starts in Pudding Lane.

Choose a Task Card

You see the fire spreading to the west of London and go to see the King to warn him. Move forward two spaces.

Choose a Task Card

The fire spreads but people manage to escape London to safety. Move forward two spaces.

King Charles II orders buildings to be demolished, to stop the fire spreading. Move forward two spaces.

Choose a Task Card

St Paul's Cathedral is destroyed by the fire. Move back two spaces.

You decide to leave the area. You bury wine and cheese so looters won't steal it. Move forward two spaces.

Choose a Task Card

Choose a Task Card

The fire starts to die down, move forward two spaces.

Finish

The fire has been put out!