

Can I identify and name lots of different types of animals?

Amphibians

Amphibians live on land and in water. They lay their eggs in water. They have smooth, slimy skin. They have moist skin and webbed feet.

Can you name these animals?

Amphibians

frog

toad

newt

Reptiles

Most reptiles live on land and lay their eggs on land. They have scales on their skin and have dry skin too.

Can you name these animals?

Reptiles

snake

crocodile

turtle

chameleon

Mammals

Mammals usually have hair or fur, they breathe air, and feed on their mother's milk as a baby. Mammal babies are born alive and look like a mini version of the adult animal.

Can you name these animals?

Mammals

lion

zebra

dog

human

polar bear

Fish

Fish can live and breathe underwater. They have scaly skin, fins to help them swim and they breathe through gills. They lay their eggs in water.

Can you name these animals?

Fish

shark

stingray

pufferfish

clownfish

Birds

Birds have a beak, wings, feathers and 2 legs. Birds lay eggs.

Can you name these animals?

Birds

duck

flamingo

parrot

peacock

owl

