

We need to write a sentence or some sentences for picture number 3.

Look at my sentences.

She saw chairs. She saw sat on them. It broke.

She went into the next room and saw 3 colourful chairs. Goldilocks decided to try them all. She loved the Baby chair because it was just right.

I have added where she went next, what the chairs looked like, and gave a reason why she liked the last chair.

Here are some questions you could answer to make your sentences.

Where did she go next? What did she see? What happened? Which chair did she like and why?

We need to write a sentence or some sentences for picture number 4.

Look at my sentences.

Goldilocks saw beds and fell asleep.

Goldilocks tiptoed into the bedroom and saw 3 different beds. She loved the last one so much that she fell asleep.

I have written about how she was moving, described the beds and written about what happened with the last bed.

How did Goldilocks go into the bedroom in your story? Tiptoed, crept, stomped, ran?

What did she do? What happened and why?

We need to write a sentence or some sentences for picture number 5.

Look at my sentences.

When she woke up she saw the bears.

*When Goldilocks woke up she saw 2 angry bears and 1 sad bear.
They had fluffy fur and clothes.*

I have described what the bears looked like using lots of adjectives; angry, sad and fluffy.

*Who did Goldilocks see when she woke up? What did they look like?
What were they wearing?*

We need to write a sentence or some sentences for picture number 6.

To end a traditional story we write about what happened to the characters at the end of the story.

After finishing our writing we write

The End.

Look at my sentences.

Goldilocks ran home.

Goldilocks sprinted home and the bears waved goodbye. The bears were happy to have their cottage again. Goldilocks was never seen again. The End.

I have described how Goldilocks ran, and what happened to the characters.

How did Goldilocks run in your story? Rushed, jogged, dashed, hurried, escaped?

*What happened to the bears and what happened to Goldilocks?
Don't forget the special ending!*