

Homework week commencing 13th November 2023

I'm so delighted with your submissions to BBC's 500 Words competition! If you have not yet had the opportunity to show your certificate in Celebration Assembly on Friday, please do email them in and I will ensure that you can show it to us all.

As we have been working on subordinate clauses, I have set you a piece of homework related to this on Atom. Make sure that you read each statement carefully. Subordinate clauses can be tricky but remember that they all have a subject and a verb in it with a conjunction at the start.

For example:

Sally told me that she is moving to London.

'Sally told me' is the main clause, whereas 'that she is moving to London' is the subordinate clause which starts with 'that' as a conjunction.

Please let me know how you get on!

All the best!

Any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me via email.

Kind regards,

Mrs Padam
