

Science Homework - 13.11.20

Research

Next week in Science we will be exploring Pitch. To support your understanding of our Sound topic; can you find and learn about the following vocabulary words? We will refer to them in our lessons next week. You could produce a poster, or you present them in a table like below. Please hand any work in the book box on Monday 16th November 2020.

Vocabulary	Meaning
Vibration
Sound wave
Volume
Amplitude
Pitch

Have a safe weekend
