Draw each event as they occur in Genesis 1:1 (own bible or click link in overview of week). Label each event with a key word from the text.

Now sum up the key messages and write below what this story means to you. 1. What are your thoughts? 2 How does it make you feel?

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin blue border and a pointed bottom, intended for writing a summary of key messages and personal reflections. The box is located below the oval drawing area and occupies the lower half of the worksheet.
